PART 5:

Please provide a well written, one-page typed essay that portrays your financial need and desire to further your education. Give the scholarship committee insight into what you consider most important in life and how you plan to serve others through a higher education. The essay can include, but is not limited to, the following: career goals, leadership positions, participation in church and the community, a rewarding life experience, and your need for financial assistance. If there is anything further that should be considered while reviewing your application, this is the avenue for you to express that information. Remember scholarships are awarded based upon need and merit.
